

n notes

An answered prayer

A coming Saviour

A returning King

q questions

1. Why do you suppose Dr Luke starts his biography of Jesus with this particular story?
2. How are we called to respond to the reality of Jesus' first coming?
3. How are we called to respond to the reality of Jesus' second coming?

Please use this sheet for your sermon notes. The questions are for you to consider and pray through as you reflect on the Bible teaching you have received today.

n notes

An answered prayer

A coming Saviour

A returning King

q questions

1. Why do you suppose Dr Luke starts his biography of Jesus with this particular story?
2. How are we called to respond to the reality of Jesus' first coming?
3. How are we called to respond to the reality of Jesus' second coming?

Please use this sheet for your sermon notes. The questions are for you to consider and pray through as you reflect on the Bible teaching you have received today.